Text of the Islamic legal incantation

To break spells and expel demonic

possession (by Sheikh Abu Abd al-Ilah al-Shadhili)

In the name of God, the Most Gracious, the Most Merciful. Praise be to God, Lord of the Worlds, who said in what our master narrated Hadith al-Quds

Abu Dharr al-Ghifari (may God be pleased with him)

Imam Muslim narrated it: "O My servants, I have forbidden injustice for Myself, and I have made it forbidden among you, so do not wrong one another."

Peace and blessings be upon our master, the Messenger of God, may God bless him and grant him peace.

The one who repelled injustice from God's creation and brought them good and benefit is the one who said:

As narrated by our master Jabir bin Abdullah, may God be pleased with him:

" Whoever is able to benefit his brother, let him do so."

And after:

Since magic is one of the most severe and heinous forms of injustice against God's creation, breaking the spell and removing the jinn is of the greatest benefit to them.

And when it was found that among those whom people go to in order to undo their magic or remove their possession are sorcerers, charlatans, and ignorant people claiming to be sheikhs, teaching people how to perform ruqyah (Islamic healing) for themselves and their families is one of the greatest and most important legitimate purposes, through which one seeks the pleasure of G

I have decided to standardize the texts of the traditional Islamic incantation (ruqyah).

And I seek to make it accessible and easy for all of God's creation, hoping for His acceptance and reward alone.

The text of the incantation was published for three reasons: -

Firstly: to protect the Sunnah and Sharia from distortion.

Secondly: Protecting the religion and honor of Muslim men and women from resorting to sorcerers and charlatans by facilitating the correct and legitimate Islamic healing practices.

For those who do not want to seek treatment from sorcerers or

The charlatans, the ignorant, and those who falsely claim to be sheikhs,

By improving himself and his family through his own efforts.

And thirdly: out of my concern that I don't forget

The healer may misinterpret something in it or make a mistake in reading it.

Because of his treatment of the patient or the conditions that may befall him during it, and may God reward those who spread it and disseminate it among the people with the best reward.

Introduction: -

This is the text of the legal incantation

for breaking spells and banishing possession, which is the text of the Quranic verses with their numbers, the names of their chapters, and the number of times they are repeated.

Likewise, the text of the supplications transmitted and established by authentic hadiths from our Prophet Muhammad

The Messenger of God, may God bless him and grant him peace, according to its text

The number of times it is repeated, which is read in the legal incantation for breaking all types of magic,

whether sprinkled, drunk, or eaten, and for expelling possession, and to facilitate reading it from the phone, its page was designed

Phone screen, proportionate to size. ((Very important notice)) It is forbidden for a male healer to touch a female patient and vice versa without a barrier.

He is careful to avoid exposing the woman's private parts during

Treatment by dressing her in trousers (pants)

The Islamic veil and tightening what she wears on it.

How to treat it

The healer places his right hand on the head

The patient recites the Ruqyah text into his right ear,

He reads it over water in a container the size of

It is sufficient for the patient to drink from it repeatedly, bathe in it, and sprinkle some of it in the house.

From the inside out to the apartment door,

down from the roof and stairs to the front door, in front of it in the street, under the windows, in the skylights, and in its entrance.

From the street, and repeat as often as necessary.

the pronoun of the addressee if he is reciting for someone else: May God heal you, and may God cure you (a) In the name of God, and with the third-person pronoun if he is being referred to as absent.

Or he prays for his recovery: "I recite a supplication for him, and God will heal him." This applies to all supplications recited in the name of God.

O God, heal me and grant me relief. 1- In the name of God, I seek refuge from everything that harms me, from every soul.

O God, heal me from magic, sorcery, or the evil eye.

O God, Lord of mankind, King of mankind, God of mankind

Heal me and remove the affliction, heal me, for You are the Healer.

There is no healing except Your healing, a healing that leaves no trace of illness. Have mercy on me, for You are the Most Merciful of the merciful.

Sufficient for me is Allah, there is no god but He. Upon Him I rely, and He is the Lord of the Magnificent Throne. Allah is the Greatest, and there is no power nor strength except with Allah, the Most High, the Magnificent. (Allah, heal me and Allah will cure me 2 -) In the
